2006 FULBRIGHT SCHOLARSHIP TO THE UNITED STATES

Applications are now open for 2006 Fulbright Awards. Valued at up to $A40,000, these awards are open to Australian citizens to undertake research or study in the United States. The award must be started between 1 July 2006 and 30 June 2007.

Applications are invited in the following award categories:

FULBRIGHT POSTGRADUATE AWARDS
For study or research (8-12 months) towards an American degree or research related to an Australian degree. Up to eleven Fulbright Postgraduate Awards are offered in all fields of study, including the following specific awards:
- Technology and Communications Award sponsored by Telstra
- Engineering Award sponsored by Clough Ltd
- Science and Engineering Award sponsored by BHP Billiton
- Visual and Performing Arts Award sponsored by Anthony Joseph Pratt

Current Australian Postgraduate Award (APA) holders are encouraged to apply, as APA guidelines have been changed in 2005 to encourage international research experiences related to Australian postgraduate studies through awards, such as Fulbright.

FULBRIGHT PROFESSIONAL AWARDS
Valued at up to $A25,000 these awards support a 3-6 month research program. The awards are directed towards professionals [junior to mid level staff, poised for advancement to a senior level] to undertake professional development in the United States.
Up to four Fulbright Professional Awards are offered, including the following specific awards:
- Vocational Education and Training Award
- Australian-United States Alliance Studies Award sponsored by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT)
- Business/Industry (Coral Sea) Award addressing a business or industry issue relevant to Australia and the United States

FULBRIGHT POSTDOCTORAL AWARD
Valued at up to $A30,000, this award supports a 3-12 month research program for scholars who have recently completed a PhD and would like to pursue ongoing postdoctoral research.

FULBRIGHT SENIOR SCHOLAR AWARDS
Valued at up to $A30,000, the awards support a 3-6 month research program for academic-based professionals or scholars who intend to teach or undertake research.
